

Air waves are public and should not be used by corporations strictly for corporate profits. Broadcast bands have been sold to people who want to make money, I feel illegally sold without public approval. Local communities are losing control. Please limit these corporations in what they can "own". It's really our property, not theirs.